

Margaret Lanen: Welcome to our distance learning team meeting. We are here today to talk about the year and to find out how we can better serve each of you.

My name is Margaret Lanen and I'm I'm the coordinator at the hub here at Notre Dame Education Center. And we have another Margaret here.

Margaret McLaughlin: My name is Margaret McLaughlin and I'm a distance learning teacher. I enjoy correcting your work. I encourage you to work very hard.

Patricia: My name is Patricia Drake. I'm also a teacher at Notre Dame, but I'm a coach at Cambridge Community Learning Center. So I get to play both roles but I never get to see my distance learning students, which I really regret, the ones that are not at Cambridge, so I'm glad I can take this time to welcome you.

Diana: Hi! I'm Diana Satin, and I I'm a teacher also, and I work with students who want extra practice using the student Weebly website. There are a lot of great resources there, and I'm happy to practice conversation with you, extra writing you want to do, grammar, anything with English you want to do using the resources on Weebly, and we can have video meetings too. So I look forward to talking with you more.

Margaret Lanen: And I also do a video meeting every Thursday afternoon at 3:30 and you are welcome to join on the Weebly website. All you need to do is click the link and you can be part of our conversation group.

Margaret Lanen: We just wanted to say hello and have you see us interacting together. We know it's hard to be an online student and not to know who you're talking to. So just so you'll know this is Margaret, Pat, Margaret, and Diana.

Patricia: Patricia.

Margaret Lanen: Patricia? Okay, thank you.

Patricia: Because Pat can be a man's name or a woman's name, so I always use the name Patricia when people don't know me. Once you know me, you can call me Pat.

Margaret Lanen: Very good.

Margaret Lanen: I think the major piece we want to emphasize is the Weebly online website, because that is a place where you can get lots and lots of help. You have a chance to introduce yourself, and you have a chance to get different resources. So please go to leadesol.weebly.com and tell us about yourself so we can get to know you, too. Thank you!
