

Hi! This is Diana. Welcome to our LEAD ESOL community on the internet. I want to show you how this website can help you improve your English and meet other people in the program.

I'll explain how.

You can meet other students from all over Massachusetts. Click Meet Other Students. You will see a video with instructions. You can meet other people and introduce yourself. You are not alone studying in this program.

You can meet your teachers. Click Meet your teachers. You can watch a video to meet your teachers, including me. And you can send a message to your teacher.

You can get more information about your course. Click USALearns., then Help Using USALearns. Watch videos showing how to do some things.

There is extra practice for available for the course. Click USALearns, then click More Practice Using USALearns.

Look in the top right corner to join the USALearns Facebook page. You can get more practice and meet other students from all over the world!

Also in the top right corner, you can get USALearns apps for your cell phone or tablet.

A video shows how to find documents for each USALearns unit, including words from the vocabulary lessons and conversations from the videos, plus extra practice using the English and skills you learn.

You can earn points to get an extra certificate. Watch the video for more information.

Do you know how to study effectively? Click Study Skills and watch the video to show how to use the resources here to remember English better.

Click Congratulations to see who finished a course. Watch the video showing how to give congratulations to a classmate or tell us about your progress.

Click Video Conversation to see how to practice with teacher Margaret or me.

Do you want to write more? Click Writing Conversation to participate with students across Massachusetts. Follow the instructions near the top of the page. The topic will change sometimes.

Do you want help with speaking or pronunciation? Click Speaking Practice. Follow the instructions to send me a recording. I will check it and respond to you. The practice will change sometimes.

Do you want independent practice, practice you do yourself? You can choose Writing and Grammar, Speaking and Listening, or Reading and Vocabulary. I'll show you Writing and Grammar for example. Click to go to the page, and watch the video to see how to use the websites here. It's the same for Speaking and Listening and Reading and Vocabulary.

I hope this website helps you learn more English. If you have questions or suggestions, please tell me, Diana. You can contact me on the Meet Your Teachers page. Fill in the form and choose my name.

Happy studying!
